Canarias: La guerra invisible I (Idea Global) (Spanish Edition) Angél Tristán Pimienta

En esta recopilación de artículos y conferencias, presentada en dos volúmenes, Ángel Tristán intenta explicar algo que debiera ser evidente: que la política de seguridad y defensa es fundamental para una democracia, así como lo es una estrategia de relaciones internacionales presidida por el interés nacional, la promoción del desarrollo en el tercer mundo y la defensa activa de la paz. Cuando nadie lo hacía, Tristán defendió la pertenencia de España en la OTAN, alertó sobre los errores de la política española en el norte de África o criticó la papanatería antimilitarista de la izquierda canaria. Tristán demostró ser «un periodista con una curiosidad universal y unas peligrosas dosis de sentido común», un sentido común que utiliza en los textos que presentamos como munición didáctica contra las tropas de la ceguera y la intransigencia de los ultras de ambos extremos. Este primer volumen recoge algunos de los artículos largos publicados en “La Provincia”, además de sus principales conferencias sobre aspectos de política internacional, defensa y seguridad, incluyendo sus palabras al recibir en 2006 la Cruz al Mérito Militar.
