According to different initiating subjects, the implementation of anti-monopoly law can be classified into two ways: the public implementation by the law-enforcement authority and the private implementation by private parties (mainly through the courts). China's anti-monopoly laws have been implemented for five years, but the overall effect of implementation is not ideal. Especially, its implementation in the special industries and sectors has a great gap with the expectations of the public on anti-monopoly laws. Therefore, how to further optimize the implementation of the system of China's anti-monopoly laws, as well as how to strengthen the implementation of anti-monopoly laws in special industries and sectors in the coming years will be an urgent problem to study and to solve.
