El que susurraba en las tinieblas (Spanish Edition) H. P. Lovecraft

Como viene siendo habitual en Lovecraft, este relato va a reflejar la particular cosmogonía y elementos que caracterizan su obra. Escenarios lúgubres y misteriosos, leyendas terribles en las que se mezcla lo humano con lo sobrenatural, materializado en seres deformes o mutados, descubrimiento de secretos familiares ocultados durante largo tiempo y que no conviene ser revelados.

Todo ello, magistralmente combinado, crea un ambiente de opresión en el que el protagonista, por un lado, va a tener la curiosidad por saber qué hay más allá, pero por otro lado siente que la información obtenida se le escapa de las manos con la conclusión de que no quisiera jamás haberse adentrado en lo desconocido. Hasta ahora, los relatos que había leído del autor hacían referencia a seres desencarnados, fantasmas o espíritus, llámese de cualquier forma, o de seres deformes debido a una unión desafortunada entre hombres y mujeres con otros seres superiores, provenientes de pequeños reductos de alguna civilización o cultura remotas, con consecuencias monstruosas.
