Il guardante e il guardato (Italian Edition) Angelo Andreotti

Flavio Ermini scrive nell'Introduzione: «In questo libro – articolato in diciannove narrazioni – siamo invitati a intraprendere un cammino che si manifesta attraverso uno smarrimento. Ciascuno di noi sarà destinato a fare i conti con il matrimonio del cielo con la terra: bene e angoscia al tempo stesso. Insieme: familiarità ed estraneità. Insomma: lo stare a casa propria con disagio.»

La narrazione sembra accadere nel medesimo istante in cui stanno accadendo le cose. Quasi un'istantanea che tuttavia si prende il tempo per scardinare gli istanti dal loro flusso continuo, e nell'interstizio tra l'uno e l'altro il lettore viene precipitato dentro ai pensieri dei protagonisti, catturato dalle loro emozioni e dai loro dubbi, letteralmente preso da una scrittura minuziosa, realistica e al tempo stesso visionaria.

In bilico tra pensiero poetante e descrizione cinematografica, questa scrittura e i fatti che descrive indicano la distanza che intercorre tra noi e il mondo in cui viviamo, e la consapevolezza che solo la nostra dedizione alla vita, la nostra capacità di mettere insieme intelligenza intellettuale e intelligenza emotiva, possono far sì che questa distanza non sia una separazione ma uno stimolo alla relazione.

«Il guardante e il guardato – scrive ancora Ermini – ci indica che aver cura delle nostre conoscenze significa seguire il nostro sapere nel suo continuo cambiare di fronte al mutamento, perché il nostro sapere è tale solo in quanto si rinnova continuamente.»
