Summer Haiku for Children (Seasons in Haiku Book 2) Bridgette Bush

Continue the haiku book journey with a trip through the through the season of summer. Summer is a more care-free season when play-time is more in abundance. Trips to the beach or the pool can make this time even more memorable.

The watercolor pictures add to the fun and exploration of the Japanese style poetry in this book. Children can read the poems again and again, especially when the weather makes it less than ideal to play outside. Just like with the butterfly in Spring Haiku for Children, children can follow (double-tap) the seashell for bonus fun facts!
