It's not easy being Claire. (Really.)

Claire's life is a joke . . . but she's not laughing. While her friends seem to be leaping forward, she's dancing in the same place. The mean girls at school are living up to their mean name, and there's a boy, Ryder, who's just as bad, if not worse. And at home, nobody's really listening to her -- if anything, they seem to be more in on the joke than she is.

Then into all of this (not-very-funny-to-Claire) comedy comes something intense and tragic -- while her dad is talking to her at the kitchen table, he falls over with a medical emergency. Suddenly the joke has become very serious -- and the only way Claire, her family, and her friends are going to get through it is if they can find a way to make it funny again.

Jessica Palmer:

As a university student exactly feel bored to be able to reading. If their teacher asked them to go to the library in order to make summary for some guide, they are complained. Just small students that has reading's soul or real their interest. They just do what the teacher want, like asked to go to the library. They go to right now there but nothing reading really. Any students feel that reading is not important, boring as well as can't see colorful pics on there. Yeah, it is being complicated. Book is very important for you personally. As we know that on this age, many ways to get whatever we would like. Likewise word says, many ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore , this Falling Over Sideways can make you feel more interested to read.
