Guérir La Civilisation (French Edition) Claudio Naranjo

Healing Civilization, by Claudio Naranjo is about; how we can promote individual healing by cultivating our “inner family” – a trinity of “Inner Father,” “Inner Mother,” and “Inner Child” that corresponds to our three centers, or “three brains”: thinking, feeling, and doing, respectively – and how we can foster a balance of the healthy values and virtues associated with each member of this sacred trinity: how society as a whole can transcend patriarchy to create a new consciousness that emphasizes self-knowledge and awareness, trust in human relationships and nature, spontaneity and pleasure, and the cultivation of the mind beyond the intellect: why and how patriarchy arose – the history of our patriarchal society, how it still exists today, and why it’s hurting us: how a change in the way educators are trained can transform education to address the whole person of the child, and thus ensure a good future for our planet: why healing civilization offers the promise of a loving, free, and harmonious human community – and how we can make it possible.
