Bridget is a college student who is down on her luck and just looking for her job. It just so happens that her absolutely gorgeous roommate, Maggie Gordon, is the daughter of one of America's most powerful and richest man. He has the perfect job opportunity for Bridget, but it comes with the task of Bridget keeping the biggest secret in the nation as if her life depended on it.

Bridget is not quite sure if she is ready for such an incredible weight to be placed on her shoulders, but when she meets Jack Gordon himself, she is head over heels. She knows that no secret can keep her away from him, and that there is nothing that can stop her from being with Jack for now and forever.

Jack Gordon, normally a recluse, finds his world shaken by a simple college student. It was something that no one could have ever predicted...
