La Rodilla En El Agua. El Poema De La Isla De Pedro García Cabrera (Critica literaria) (Spanish Edition) Cyril Brian Morris

La voz original de Pedro García Cabrera resuena en los poemas que componen La rodilla en el agua, escritos en su mayor parte en 1934 durante su exilio en Gran Canaria. El eminente crítico C. Brian Morris, cuyos dos estudios sobre Pedro García Cabrera ya se han publicado en Ediciones Idea, ofrece en este nuevo libro una interpretación erudita de la obra que el poeta llamó su “poema de la isla”. Morris coloca la obra dentro de un contexto internacional en el que se identifican algunos de los lugares comunes y convenciones que caracterizan la poesía insular, y emprende un análisis de una serie de poemas que constituyen un homenaje apasionado y profundo a la isla ideal, a la que otorga el poeta las virtudes humanas que él más admira. La isla ideal surge de la mente del poeta no sólo como fenómeno geológico sino como una entidad ejemplar, que en el plano metafísico es su alter ego.
