Whether you are thirty-something wondering where the last fifteen years went, twenty-something in search of your true purpose, or a late teen preparing to enter adult life, Life Quest is a guide to braving adulthood with biblical passion.

Sociologists and psychologists of our day are documenting a huge societal problem people have stopped growing up! We are addicted to staying immature and irresponsible. We seek immediate gratification and the path of least resistance and we're paying a very high price!

This book will place you on a forward path of biblical principles. Don't waste another day in what some call a 'perpetual state of limbo!' Discover the true rewards of living God's purpose and embracing the challenges of adulthood!
