Polvo en el viento. Vaticano: esplendores y miserias de un narcotraficante (Spanish Edition) Hugo Coya

Una exhaustiva investigación que revela documentos desclasificados del Departamento de Estado y de Justicia de Estados Unidos sobre el caso del famoso narcotraficante Vaticano.

Según las autoridades, su fortuna era inmensa, pero su poder no radicaba solo en su dinero, sino, sobre todo, en sus múltiples contactos con las más altas autoridades del gobierno peruano, con los grandes capos colombianos de la droga y con muy populares figuras de la farándula.

¿Qué tienen en común uno de los quince hijos de un modesto agricultor, un niño que recorre descalzo polvorientas calles para llegar a la escuela; un joven que cruza el monte buscando una ciudad donde forjarse un futuro y que viaja por la selva vendiendo ropa o relojes; y un hombre que convierte a policías y militares en sus colaboradores y al hombre más poderoso del país en su incondicional informante, así como en su frustrado amante?

Tras Estación final, Hugo Coya vuelve a sorprendernos con otra excepcional investigación para la que ha recorrido los lugares donde ocurrieron los hechos y ha contado con el testimonio de más de setenta personas, entre ellas el propio Demetrio Chávez Peñaherrera, el hasta ahora misterioso Vaticano.
