Social Analysis in Private Sector Projects Asian Development Bank

The Asian Development Bank (ADB) supports equitable and sustainable social development by giving attention to the social dimensions of its operations. This brochure contributes to this undertaking by providing step-by-step guidance to address social dimensions such as participation, gender, and other social risks and vulnerabilities in the context of the private sector project cycle. It complements another ADB publication, the Handbook on Social Analysis, which provides general guidance on incorporating social dimensions into ADB operations.
