Treinta Doblones de oro (B de Books) (Spanish Edition) Jesús Sánchez Adalid

En las postrimerías del siglo XVII, la esplendorosa Sevilla languidece al perder su monopolio de los negocios de ultramar, como consecuencia de las nuevas leyes de la Contratación, que benefician a Cádiz.

En un noble caserón, el joven Cayetano sirve como contable de don Manuel de Paredes, cuando se recibe una fatal noticia: el navío Jesús Nazareno se ha hundido por un temporal; la preciada carga se ha perdido en el fondo del mar, naufragando las últimas esperanzas de salir de la ruina de don Manuel, su esposa y su servidumbre, que habían invertido todos sus bienes en la empresa.

La casa y las pertenencias familiares están hipotecadas y se presenta un porvenir incierto... No obstante, se enciende una luz de esperanza gracias a unas propiedades heredadas en las Islas Canarias. Hay pues que viajar allá y afrontar peligros y adversidades...

Sin perder el tono aventurero, el autor nos introducirá en el misterio profundo del ser humano, sus temores, sus dudas y sus esperanzas, entre originales episodios llenos de humor y vitalidad.
