Bestiario (Italian Edition) A cura di Anna Maria Bartolucci, AA. VV.

Un bestiario è un testo che descrive gli animali o bestie. Nel Medioevo si trattava di una particolare categoria di libri, che raccoglievano brevi descrizioni di animali (reali e immaginari), accompagnate da spiegazioni moralizzanti e riferimenti tratti dalla Bibbia.

Frutto di una scelta didattica precisa operata dalla professoressa Anna Maria Bartolucci, docente di Lettere, che attraverso l'approfondimento storico e simbolico delle fiere, ha proposto ai ragazzi, divisi in gruppi, un esercizio di fantasia utilizzando animali di loro conoscenza e a loro più graditi. Essi hanno costruito animali fantastici descrivendone l'aspetto fisico, il comportamento e le peculiarità. Il risultato è un delizioso esercizio di scrittura creativa apprezzabile non solo dai più giovani. Tale lavoro è stato arricchito da illustrazioni curate dalla professoressa Filomena Zurlo, docente di Arte e Immagine. Il risultato del lavoro evidenzia sia l'immaginario dei ragazzi adeguatamente stimolati e svincolati dai mezzi informatici, nonché la possibilità di insegnare in modo divertente e costruttivo la lingua italiana.

Anna Maria Bartolucci è nata e vive a Urbino. Laureata in Lettere Moderne presso l'Università degli Studi di Urbino, ha conseguito un corso di perfezionamento in Didattica generale, un diploma di perfezionamento in La Letteratura Italiana nella Letteratura dell'Europa e un Master in Storia e Forme della Letteratura Italiana. Attualmente insegna Lettere nella Scuola Secondaria di Primo Grado nell'Istituto Omnicomprensivo Della Rovere di Urbina (Pu).
