"Fans of Victoria Dahl, Marina Adair and Juliana Stone will enjoy this novel." - Under the Covers Book Blog

From Library Journal: "Bright, smart, funny, and engaging. Allie is a woman who knows what she wants and isn't going to settle for anything less. Cameron is what she wants, if she can bring him around to her way of thinking. Browning's Texas Nights series is off to a great start!"

Sex therapist Allie Shelby has the professional credentials, but she could use a bit more practical experience. Finding the right man to bring out her inner bad girl is tough in a population-challenged Texas town. So when sinfully sexy Cameron Wright rolls back into Shelbyville, Allie wastes no time inviting him to join her in some hands-on research.

Cameron has come home to fulfill his dream of restoring classic cars. Back in high school, he knew the town princess, Allie Shelby, was way out of his league. Today he has even less in common with Allie, so he's shocked as hell when she propositions him. Still, he's only human, so he accepts her offer--and with each encounter, she shows him another, wilder side. Before long, he's thinking about more than just sex.

But while her personal life heats up, Allie's business is about to crash and burn. And she has to convince Cameron that she's one princess who's not looking for a prince to ride to her rescue.
