Who Am I: Your Worth to God Nathan Richard Chapman

Who Am I? Every person is an image bearer of the King of kings. And, each person's worth is far more than what they feel, what they believe they are, and what they've earned or haven't, their worth is infinite. Each person's worth is infinite because it is found in their image. Their worth is not from the image they display for the world to see in the mirror because they are the mirror. We are each individually made in the image of God and in that image we have more worth than we could ever imagine. While reading this text think of it more as a devotional. Instead of reading it like a book from start to finish, read each chapter and reflect on what it says. The chapters rather than building a structured argument are designed to each be a completed part in the process of creating a whole piece of art. Take time to reflect on the discussion questions at the end of each chapter. Dive into the quotes from God's Word found throughout the text and the questions. Learn more about yourself by learning more about the King you are made in the image of!
