Architectural Tiles: Conservation and Restoration Lesley Durbin

Book description

Providing hands on advice for the conservator, Architectural Tiles: Conservation and Restoration is a unique and valuable guide to the care of historic tile schemes in architectural settings. It offers practical guidance on conservation and restoration techniques including the problems of manufacture, cleaning, mortars and replacement or repair. Techniques are illustrated by comprehensive international case studies, set against a background of the role of past architects and designers in historic schemes. This second edition includes valuable updates on all aspects of the practice of tile conservation.

Lesley Durbin is senior conservator at the Jackfield Conservation Studio, UK.

She has over thirty years experience of the conservation of architectural ceramics.
