The Feral Child. Gill Cooke

When local thug, Mally Kenyon, rescues a seven year old girl from a disused canal where she has been placed inside a tied sack and left to drown, it is easy to make assumptions as to how she got there and the circumstances leading to her abuse. The police arrest him under suspicion of him being the perpetrator, at the same time realising the opportunities to eradicate other vermin from the notorious Dog's Bed Estate as they set about finding the evidence to convict him. What no one realises is that the child has an agenda of her own.

When no one comes forward to claim her and the child proves to have extreme behavioural problems which preclude her from being placed into a mainstream care facility, Cubby Watson, Investigative reporter for the local Clarion newspaper, determines to put all his efforts into discovering her identity in order to compromise Chief Constable, Catty Collins, towards whom he harbours deep and vengeful grievances. What he and others fail to realise is that the shocking truth lies close to home ...
