In A Garden Full of Weeds, a lifetime's observations and experiences are captured by Jean McArthur - poet, nurse, artist, traveller. Poignant moments are described with a visual artist's eye and balanced with the compassion of one in the caring professions. With an intrinsic connection to the natural world, and a fascination for people, McArthur has created a unique poetry collection that spans the south east of South Australia, to Canada, Mexico, Sri Lanka and South East Asia.
