Dream Rittik Chandra

DREAM is a short story of a young boy and his sister. These two used to wonder all day long. They wondered at the beauty of the flowers; they wondered at the height and blueness of the sky; they wondered at the depth of the bright water; they wondered at the goodness and the power of God who made the lovely world.

This little tale on a sudden impulse, is simple and unpretending; and it gains its beauty from this unpretentious simplicity. This also present a single theme with the clearest simplicity.
