The Ascent of Babel: An Exploration of Language, Mind, and Understanding Gerry T. M. Altmann

Language is one of the faculties that sets humans apart from animals, the crucial thing which makes our complex social interactions possible. The Ascent of Babel explores the ways in which the mind produces and understands language: the ways in which the sounds of language evoke meaning, and the ways in which the desire to communicate causes us to produce those sounds to begin with. The 'ascent' symbolises different things: the progression from sound to meaning, the ascent that we each undergo, from birth onwards, as we learn our mother tongue, and the quest to understand the mental processes which underlie our use of language. Gerry Altmann leads the reader on this ascent - a fascinating tour which takes us from babies learning to say words to the production of spoken and written language, the effects of brain damage on language, and the ways in which computer simulations of interconnecting nerve cells can learn language.

The Ascent of Babel is a journey of discovery, written in an engaging and witty style, at the end of which it becomes clear that Babel's summit - the secret of language - may actually lie at its foundations, where babies play and language is learned.

John Bergeron:

As a university student exactly feel bored to reading. If their teacher asked them to go to the library or make summary for some publication, they are complained. Just minor students that has reading's heart and soul or real their leisure activity. They just do what the educator want, like asked to go to the library. They go to there but nothing reading very seriously. Any students feel that examining is not important, boring in addition to can't see colorful pics on there. Yeah, it is to get complicated. Book is very important for you. As we know that on this age, many ways to get whatever we wish. Likewise word says, many ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore this The Ascent of Babel: An Exploration of Language, Mind, and Understanding can make you really feel more interested to read.
