Unholy Birth Andrew Neiderman

From the author of The Devil's Advocate and Finding Satan, a novel about a couple who decide to adopt a child, a decision that could bring the birth of the Antichrist.

Congratulations, it's a boy... Now it's time to pray.

Kate Dobson and her girlfriend run a successful California catering business and share a beautiful home in the Indian Canyons of Palm Springs. They are secure in their relationship and more than comfortable financially. But Kate wants something more...a child. Her longing has invaded her dreams, turning them to nightmares, but it's a need that won't be ignored. So it seems like a miracle when Kate is contacted by Genitor, a cutting-edge in vitro fertilization clinic. Dr. Lois Matthews, the head of Genitor, will personally handle Kate's case, and everything is in place for Kate's pregnancy: an ideal donor, a live-in nanny. But before any test shows she is pregnant, Kate experiences unnerving symptoms in full force, pushing her body—and soon her sanity—to the brink. How can she feel a child quickening inside her? Why is she being pursued by a terrorizing radical group—or is she? Paranoia is taking over her mind, but a force of evil is taking over her body. And soon that evil will be delivered...
