Children of all ages across the world know and love the story of Pinocchio, the wooden boy with the nose that grows and grows. It has been retold here with a distinctly South African flavour. Pinocchio's adventures will be familiar to readers who have come across the story before, but they might be surprised to find his travelling companion is a locust, or to read about the roguish Fox and Hare who are determined to lead him astray. Pinocchio stays the night in a remote village and he is given a consultation by three wise men who throw the bones for him. South African readers will feel at home as they journey with Pinocchio through an African landscape.
