Un juego de doble identidad entre los líderes del Tercer Reich.

Esta impactante novela, cuya trama se desarrolla entre la Primera y la Segunda Guerra Mundial, es una reflexión sobre la impostura y el intercambio de identidades. En sus páginas, el destino de sus personajes se desarrolla en un escenario convulso, en el que imperan las mentiras políticas, el exterminio de miles de personas y los juegos de poder.

A bordo de un tren que parte rumbo al frente de batalla, Viktor Kretzschamar y Thadeus Dreyer disputan una partida de ajedrez. Si Thadeus gana, Viktor irá a la guerra en su lugar; si pierde, deberá matarse. Éste es el punto de partida de una serie de falseamientos de personalidad, que culmina con el #Proyecto Amphytrion#, concebido por las autoridades nazis para crear una legión de dobles y proteger a los altos funcionarios militares y políticos del Tercer Reich.

Con una prosa sólida que le ha validado ser reconocido como uno de los escritores latinoamericanos más importantes en la actualidad, Ignacio Padilla fue galardonado con el Premio Primavera de Novela por Amphytrion.
