Belleza, Musculatura y Dolor: Etnografías de cuerpos en Lima (Spanish Edition) Liuba Kogan

El cabello rubio y su significado en la sociedad limeña, las nuevas musculaturas masculinas que cuestionan los modelos de cuerpos de fisicoculturista, el dolor y placer de los practicantes de lucha libre que terminan en las emergencias hospitalarias, los jóvenes varones locos por la moda que temen ser tildados de femeninos u homosexuales, y extraordinarias fotografías de mujeres marginales que buscan comunicar sus experiencias de vida a través de sus cuerpos; todos ellos representan temas apasionantes y son creativamente abordados por la comunicación, la antropología, la sociología y las artes escénicas. Una oportunidad explosiva para dialogar sobre asuntos en apariencia poco importantes en la vida social, pero que, curiosamente, nos ayudan a comprender quiénes somos los limeños. Los autores de este libro que he tenido el gusto de editar (Karin Elmore, Alexander Huerta-Mercado, Christian Vera, Julio Villa y Ana Sofía Janampa), literalmente se zambulleron en las vidas de diferentes limeños y limeñas para comprender sus sueños, temores y secretos. Les aseguramos una interesantísima lectura.
