Sally the Sea Turtle is a delightfully entertaining and interactive story with words and illustrations that tell the story about a loggerhead sea turtle named Sally and some of the fascinating animals she encounters and interacts with during her long journey to return home to the place where she was born. Loggerhead sea turtles like Sally travel hundreds, sometimes even thousands, of miles to return to the place of their birth to nest and lay their eggs. Sally is quite an inquisitive creature and isn't afraid to ask questions. Her adventures will enrich us all and help us understand just a little bit about how these huge creatures live and a little bit about each of her newfound friends.

You don't have to live near the sea to love Sally. Her outgoing personality will grab your heart, no matter where you live. Young and old alike can enjoy all of Sally's adventures, perhaps as a favorite bedtime story.
